

AG 8
Subjective Meaning
Janneke Huitink / Cécile Meier

Die AG 8 findet statt in Raum 1.301 (Dorotheenstr. 24, rechtes Haus 1)

Mittwoch, 24. Februar 2010

14.00–14.30	Janneke Huitink / Cécile Meier Introduction Jeannette Nuessli Guth Language in food sensory science: Methodological considerations
14.30–15.00	Dan Zeman Contextualism and disagreement
15.00–16.00	Kai von Fintel The subjectivity of conditionals in a new light
16.00–16.30	K a f f e e p a u s e · C o f f e e b r e a k
16.30–17.00	Carlos Balhana The modal decomposition of benefactive predicates: A contextualist approach
17.00–17.30	Patrick Brandt Agent wannabes and negative purposes in excess
17.30–18.00	Ariel Cohen A tasty mixture
18.00–18.30	Galit Weidman Sassoon Disagreements about taste

Donnerstag, 25. Februar 2010

09.00–09.30	Carla Umbach Evaluative predicates in dialog
09.30–10.00	Michael Hegarty Propositional attitude ascriptions and subjective judgments in dynamic semantics
10.00–11.00	Christine Gunlogson / Gregory Carlson Predicates of experience
11.00–11.30	K a f f e e p a u s e · C o f f e e b r e a k
11.30–12.30	Chris Kennedy Where does relativity come from?
12.30–13.00	Lavi Wolf Objective judgment

Freitag, 26. Februar 2010

11.30–12.00	Daniel Gutzmann Expressivism is tasty! Towards an expressive account of predicates of personal taste
12.00–12.30	Jacques Jayez Standard-sensitive predicates and the French verb ‘trouver’
12.30–13.00	Chloe Gu / Tom Roeper Children’s understanding of point of view and subjective meaning
13.00–14.00	Sanna Hirvonen Doing without judge dependence

Alternates:

- Lucian Zagan,
Vagueness, context dependence, and perspective
- Eric Kevin Carter
Incompatibility and cognitive fault